Victory universal and eternal: Victoria and cosmic conceptions of victory in late-antique art and architecture

Tuesday, May 9, 2017
19:00

Dr Cecilia Olovsson is a Marcus and Amalia Wallenberg Fellow and Senior Research Fellow at the Swedish Research Institute in Istanbul, where she currently works on a project dealing with the Roman victory goddess Victoria in Late-Roman and Early-Byzantine visual culture. A classical archaeologist and art historian, Olovsson's research interests revolve around Roman and Early Byzantine commemorative (triumphal, official, funerary) and religious art and architecture (2nd c. BCE-7th c. CE), with a special emphasis on repertorial, structural and contextual aspects of Roman and late-antique image composition.
