

ROMANI STUDIES AT SRII

"Romani emancipation and the discourse of historical justice The Swedish example in a European comparison." Dr Jan Selling, Docent and Associate Professor of History at Lund University, Senior Lecturer at Södertörn University, Researcher at the Institute for Language and Folklore, Uppsala

"A short contemporary history of Romani (Gypsy) Studies in Turkey, 2000-2017, or how we danced to a Romani band at the Swedish Consulate." Dr Adrian R Marsh, Researcher in Romani Studies

Photo © Mustafa Özunal, used by kind permission

date	location	time
31/10/2017	SWEDISH RESEARCH INSTITUTE IN ISTANBUL, ANNEX SEMINAR ROOM	14:30	Dr. Jan Selling is curator of the Digital Archive of the Roma (RomArchive, blog.romarchive.eu), responsible for the history of Romani political emancipation in Finland, Germany, Norway and Sweden as well as for the topic "The politics of historical justice and combatting Antiziganism" Dr Adrian Marsh has been a researcher in Romani Studies at the Swedish Research Institute in Istanbul (2002-2006), Research Fellow at the University of Greenwich (2007-2008) and taught Romani Studies at many universities in Turkey, UK, Egypt and Sweden.

